The Iowa Soldiers Home accepted its first resident in 1887 when the facility provided living quarters for displaced veterans of the War Between the States. Management of the home resembled life patterned after Army rules and regulations. Residents wore uniforms, marched in formation, stood inspections, ate at a mess hall, and went to bed at taps. The present-day focus of the Iowa Veterans Home—to provide professionally managed health care for aging veterans—began to emerge in the 1890s with construction of the first infirmary. Today with veterans living longer and requiring a wide range of health care service, skilled care is an important service offered by the Home.<sup>1</sup>
